Society Days at Poult Wood Golf Centre

Poult Wood is an ideal venue for society and corporate golf events set in picturesque woodland with wonderful views across the Kent countryside. Our two interesting and challenging courses offer a fascinating round for all standards of golfer and the restaurant overlooking the 18th green serves a varied menu of delicious hot and cold food.

Our society packages are very competitively priced and provide opportunities for upgrades and extras to enable you to arrange your golf day specific to your needs.

On arrival at the clubhouse, your society will be made to feel welcome and will be greeted with tea and coffee upon arrival. The putting green will be available to you free of charge and for a small fee, the driving range gives you the opportunity to loosen up ready to take on the course.

Prior to teeing off at your reserved tee times, you will be introduced to your society warden who will help your day to run smoothly and will be available for advice and assistance during tee off and around the course.

All of your meals will be served in the restaurant and your group will be given a reserved seating area to ensure that you can sit together and enjoy your meals even during busy times.

The PGA approved golf shop will also be open throughout your society day and provides an excellent range of the latest golf equipment, ideal for prizes and mementos - please speak to the Golf Professional on 01732 364039 to arrange any prizes and personalised products.

Societies require a minimum of 12 golfers and are welcome on weekdays only, except bank holidays. Groups of less than 12 golfers are still welcome and although not considered as a society, advanced food orders and reserved seating can be arranged. To book as a group, please follow the same procedure as society bookings but note that advanced tee times and other benefits will not apply.

Society days can be booked by phoning the Clubhouse Manager on 01732 366180. Following this, please complete and return the enclosed booking form to finalise your arrangements and to confirm your menu choices.
